The APPS DBA Health Check plays an important part in promoting stability on an Oracle system. Output from this check will be a report that will highlight any potential issues that might cause instability or does not follow Oracle’s best practice guidelines. Several of APPSolve’s customers make use of the health check on an annual basis with great success.

